

THE NORTHERN TRIBUNE
AN INDEPENDENT WEEKLY NEWSPAPER

Published every Thursday at Grande Prairie, Alberta. The Tribune's aim is to "thoughtfully" cover the local news and to introduce the "newspaper's" many advantages as a home-land. All news is printed without intentional distortion. The paper's opinions are expressed only in its editorial columns.

Letters for publication are welcome. A post notice may be used, though correspondents must also sign their names, not necessarily for publication, but as evidence of good faith. In the event of publication, The Tribune does not imply agreement with any opinions contained therein.

J. B. YULE, Editor

Subscription Rates:
One Year, in British Empire.... $1.00
Half Year, in British Empire.... 75
One Year, in United States.... 1.50
Legal and other advertising rates furnished on application.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1934

GAMBLING—WHAT IS IT?

OTTAWA, April 13.—Bitterly opposed to the last by an opposition which has been led by the leaders of the party, the Hon. John Meighen, government and Hon. Raoul Dandurand, Liberal, the bill was passed by the Senate yesterday, third reading in the Senate. It passed by a vote of 37 to 20.

The bill now goes to the House of Commons, where it will stand on its merits and pass or fall on a non-party vote.

Many are opposed to sweepstakes and all the rest of such speculations and gambling.

There seems to be conflicting ideas among Canadians as to the definition of the word.

In the opinion of The Tribune anyone who tries to make money without contributing its equivalent to some form of social service is a gambler. In other words, a man or woman who attempts to get something for nothing is gambling.

The fact that many Canadians lift up their hands in holy horror against sweepstakes and close their eyes to the fact that they are the booms and all the rest of it demonstrates inconsistency in thinking.

No sweepstakes ever had a chance on the same scale as that which was staged in Edmonton a few years ago. Lots were sold in certain sections of the city and the public experienced hill-climbing goat to the top to climb up.

In the end, in the West lots were sold which were finally discovered when the owner arrived to be undeceived.

All this nefarious practice went on for months—yes, for several years, sanctioned by the government. Not in these months did people hold up their hands and protest against the many swindles which were perpetrated.

The reason for this state can be traced to the fact that all wanted to get rich quick, and nothing is more attractive than a portion of the coin of the realm without giving anything in return. In a word, it was gambling.

A hue and cry goes up when it is learned that some men sit down at a table with a deck of cards and play for money; yet people remain silent when promoters of newly formed companies vote to spend thousands of dollars on something that does not exist. In the hope that a gullible public may be influenced to buy their stock for a pittance, they offer real cash. Of course such practice was never considered immoral in the old days.

How often have we heard men say since the boom days that they so much wanted to get rich quick, while people lost just that which they worked for. The money they lost on the stock market has lost the reason that no real service to society was rendered. They created nothing, no new wealth was added to the country.

As The Tribune sees the question, there is no moral wrongdoing by allowing sweepstakes to be conducted than in allowing the numerous other forms of gambling, which are not only attractive but also more reprehensible.

Let us be consistent in our thinking and in our gambling, by its right name wherever it appears.

LITTLE THEATRE IDEA GROWING IN FAVOR IN PEACE RIVER COUNTRY

By the rapid rate at which local dramatic clubs are increasing in number in the Peace River country, it would seem that the time is not distant when there will be so many clubs it will be difficult to handle all the theatricals. It is to be hoped that it may be necessary to have separate festivals.

The Tribune would suggest that plots be laid for winners of the coming Musical Festival to enter the provincial competition to be held at Edmonton.

Some fine work in amateur dramatics has been done here and the present of being able to compete in the provincial competition will have a stimulating effect on all the present dramatic clubs and others that may be formed.

There isn't anything finer for young people than amateur dramatics. It gives them a chance to act in a publication which will hold them in good stead all through life.

Along The Trail
By J. B. YULE

RETURNS TO HIS DOG IN THE WILDS

Recently the Edmonton Bulletin carried a story that a Canadian boy of 17 years of age, who was born in the MacKenzie River district and had been recently adopted by a family in Ban-

Jose, California, left quietly for his old stamping grounds.

He left the following note: "I am afraid of so many people, so I am going back to the place where I came from. I am losing my dog, my dog has got me down."

By this it would seem that life is a misery.

When the writer was working a night shift on the Edmonton Journal several years ago a woman from the MacKenzie River district, who was on a river boat, stepped into the composing room to see her brother. She said: "After all, do you know, the civilization in what I know, as the world goes by, is not to offer to the people of the North? There these is freedom and people live largely that their own lives. I would not like to work for life for that of the people of Edmonton."

I have often thought since if our society would not be so much to do with us to refer to those who live like a trapper who I once met at the town of Peace River, "above the interest and rent line."

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1934

RIVER BREAK-UPS WILL MAKE WONDERFUL MOVIES

On Sunday afternoon, in company with a few friends, I crossed the bridge which spans Bear Creek to the west of the town of Grande Prairie and saw the river break up to eight feet of water rush on toward the water.

There is something in fast running water which inspires the imagination and the desire to write. I sat down on Mackenzie when all the rivers tributary emptied their swollen waters into the river as it pushed its way through the Arctic.

I was awakened from my reveries by the appearance of Tom Mason who was carrying a load of wood on his shoulders on the bridge. He was consciousness turned to high water and the breaking of the ice on northern streams in the spring.

"I saw one of the most wonderful sights last spring which I ever saw in my life. I was on the bridge when the ice came on the river. I had a splendid view of both streams. The Smoky broke up about five o'clock and the Bear about eight, April 25. This is unusual, the smaller rivers usually break first. I expected the ice to break at 11 minutes past 12. He did not come to see by Parable or by Bear. He came in the affirmative and on my occasion. He need to express his opinion as regards His Master's principles and I was greatly interested to find that he was fully satisfied to think that what He has really said was enough to cover, to take care of all the world. He did not say a word.

By Parable or by Bear. He came in the affirmative and on my occasion. He need to express his opinion as regards His Master's principles and I was greatly interested to find that he was fully satisfied to think that what He has really said was enough to cover, to take care of all the world. He did not say a word.

"I can't understand why the movie picture men—yes, we are always after the new, the latest, the most up-to-date—of this country and get a movie of the ice break-ups on our northern streams. Possessors of cameras, get a movie of the ice break-ups on our northern streams. They can't realize that there are some of the greatest thrillers in all the world. The world is a great place to climb up.

In the end, in the West lots were sold which were finally discovered when the owner arrived to be undeceived.

All this nefarious practice went on for months—yes, for several years, sanctioned by the government. Not in these months did people hold up their hands and protest against the many swindles which were perpetrated.

The reason for this state can be traced to the fact that all wanted to get rich quick, and nothing is more attractive than a portion of the coin of the realm without giving anything in return. In a word, it was gambling.

A hue and cry goes up when it is learned that some men sit down at a table with a deck of cards and play for money; yet people remain silent when promoters of newly formed companies vote to spend thousands of dollars on something that does not exist. In the hope that a gullible public may be influenced to buy their stock for a pittance, they offer real cash. Of course such practice was never considered immoral in the old days.

How often have we heard men say since the boom days that they so much wanted to get rich quick, while people lost just that which they worked for. The money they lost on the stock market has lost the reason that no real service to society was rendered. They created nothing, no new wealth was added to the country.

As The Tribune sees the question, there is no moral wrongdoing by allowing sweepstakes to be conducted than in allowing the numerous other forms of gambling, which are not only attractive but also more reprehensible.

Let us be consistent in our thinking and in our gambling, by its right name wherever it appears.

LITTLE THEATRE IDEA GROWING IN FAVOR IN PEACE RIVER COUNTRY

By the rapid rate at which local dramatic clubs are increasing in number in the Peace River country, it would seem that the time is not distant when there will be so many clubs it will be difficult to handle all the theatricals. It is to be hoped that it may be necessary to have separate festivals.

The Tribune would suggest that plots be laid for winners of the coming Musical Festival to enter the provincial competition to be held at Edmonton.

Some fine work in amateur dramatics has been done here and the present of being able to compete in the provincial competition will have a stimulating effect on all the present dramatic clubs and others that may be formed.

There isn't anything finer for young people than amateur dramatics. It gives them a chance to act in a publication which will hold them in good stead all through life.

THE NORTHERN TRIBUNE

Thoughts On Economic Subjects
By A. LaRiviere

COMMON SENSE

There may be a great difference in the interpretation of what Jesus has said or he has not said but mean, especially in the matter of fascism. There should exist no difference of opinion as regards His moral precepts and His social principles. His principles are not satisfactory to think that what He has really said was enough to cover, to take care of all the world. He did not say a word.

By Parable or by Bear. He came in the affirmative and on my occasion. He came in the affirmative and on my occasion. He need to express his opinion as regards His Master's principles and I was greatly interested to find that he was fully satisfied to think that what He has really said was enough to cover, to take care of all the world. He did not say a word.

"I can't understand why the movie picture men—yes, we are always after the new, the latest, the most up-to-date—of this country and get a movie of the ice break-ups on our northern streams. Possessors of cameras, get a movie of the ice break-ups on our northern streams. They can't realize that there are some of the greatest thrillers in all the world. The world is a great place to climb up.

In the end, in the West lots were sold which were finally discovered when the owner arrived to be undeceived.

All this nefarious practice went on for months—yes, for several years, sanctioned by the government. Not in these months did people hold up their hands and protest against the many swindles which were perpetrated.

The reason for this state can be traced to the fact that all wanted to get rich quick, and nothing is more attractive than a portion of the coin of the realm without giving anything in return. In a word, it was gambling.

A hue and cry goes up when it is learned that some men sit down at a table with a deck of cards and play for money; yet people remain silent when promoters of newly formed companies vote to spend thousands of dollars on something that does not exist. In the hope that a gullible public may be influenced to buy their stock for a pittance, they offer real cash. Of course such practice was never considered immoral in the old days.

How often have we heard men say since the boom days that they so much wanted to get rich quick, while people lost just that which they worked for. The money they lost on the stock market has lost the reason that no real service to society was rendered. They created nothing, no new wealth was added to the country.

As The Tribune sees the question, there is no moral wrongdoing by allowing sweepstakes to be conducted than in allowing the numerous other forms of gambling, which are not only attractive but also more reprehensible.

Let us be consistent in our thinking and in our gambling, by its right name wherever it appears.

REPORT OF HIS DEATH VERY MUCH EXAGGERATED

Three weeks ago it was reported that Tom Mason, who was born in the MacKenzie River district and had been recently adopted by a family in Ban-

Jose, California, left quietly for his old stamping grounds.

He left the following note: "I am afraid of so many people, so I am going back to the place where I came from. I am losing my dog, my dog has got me down."

By this it would seem that life is a misery.

When the writer was working a night shift on the Edmonton Journal several years ago a woman from the MacKenzie River district, who was on a river boat, stepped into the composing room to see her brother. She said: "After all, do you know, the civilization in what I know, as the world goes by, is not to offer to the people of the North? There these is freedom and people live largely that their own lives. I would not like to work for life for that of the people of Edmonton."

There is something in fast running water which inspires the imagination and the desire to write. I sat down on Mackenzie when all the rivers tributary emptied their swollen waters into the river as it pushed its way through the Arctic.

I was awakened from my reveries by the appearance of Tom Mason who was carrying a load of wood on his shoulders on the bridge. He was consciousness turned to high water and the breaking of the ice on northern streams in the spring.

"I saw one of the most wonderful sights last spring which I ever saw in my life. I was on the bridge when the ice came on the river. I had a splendid view of both streams. The Smoky broke up about five o'clock and the Bear about eight, April 25. This is unusual, the smaller rivers usually break first. I expected the ice to break at 11 minutes past 12. He did not say a word.

By Parable or by Bear. He came in the affirmative and on my occasion. He need to express his opinion as regards His Master's principles and I was greatly interested to find that he was fully satisfied to think that what He has really said was enough to cover, to take care of all the world. He did not say a word.

"I can't understand why the movie picture men—yes, we are always after the new, the latest, the most up-to-date—of this country and get a movie of the ice break-ups on our northern streams. Possessors of cameras, get a movie of the ice break-ups on our northern streams. They can't realize that there are some of the greatest thrillers in all the world. The world is a great place to climb up.

In the end, in the West lots were sold which were finally discovered when the owner arrived to be undeceived.

All this nefarious practice went on for months—yes, for several years, sanctioned by the government. Not in these months did people hold up their hands and protest against the many swindles which were perpetrated.

The reason for this state can be traced to the fact that all wanted to get rich quick, and nothing is more attractive than a portion of the coin of the realm without giving anything in return. In a word, it was gambling.

A hue and cry goes up when it is learned that some men sit down at a table with a deck of cards and play for money; yet people remain silent when promoters of newly formed companies vote to spend thousands of dollars on something that does not exist. In the hope that a gullible public may be influenced to buy their stock for a pittance, they offer real cash. Of course such practice was never considered immoral in the old days.

How often have we heard men say since the boom days that they so much wanted to get rich quick, while people lost just that which they worked for. The money they lost on the stock market has lost the reason that no real service to society was rendered. They created nothing, no new wealth was added to the country.

As The Tribune sees the question, there is no moral wrongdoing by allowing sweepstakes to be conducted than in allowing the numerous other forms of gambling, which are not only attractive but also more reprehensible.

Let us be consistent in our thinking and in our gambling, by its right name wherever it appears.

WHY HOG GRADING IS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY

The price of bacon in Britain depends on the quality of the product and the total supply offered for sale.

During 1931 the monthly average price of bacon in Britain was $3 to $5.

Jesus would have never advocated a reduction of armaments for war purposes. He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

Jesus would have never advocated a reduction of armaments for war purposes. He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Jesus would have never advocated a state of scarcity for the world.

He would have ordered the elimination of armaments to the same extent with the war debt because they are the products of war.

It was all very well for a St. John the Baptist to practice penance and privations in a small desert and get the world to notice him.

Interesting News From Sexsmith

Vol. II, No. 48 By R. A. MACLEOD April 17, 1934

RETURN OF TRAPPER BRINGS FORTH EXTRAORDINARY YARN

Bob Wigmore is back again after spending the winter in the North-somewhere, we believe, in the vicinity of Great Bear Lake. Mr. Wigmore has brought back a wonderful catch of furs in fact, he has even caught a bear and this is saying considerably as Bob is one of the oldest and most experienced trappers in the country. His catch has been known to bring in catches second to none.

Bob had with him his famous Siberian sled dogs, which formerly belonged to the late Czar of Russia. After the death of the Czar these dogs were sold to the Bolsheviks, and it is the key by the Bolsheviks, as a token of their ownership.

When Bob was travelling in Turkey, representing the Associated Press, he met the Sultan, and was invited up to the palace for supper. During a part of the evening the Sultan asked the subject of sled dogs and the Sultan had Bob show these Siberian dogs which had been sold to the Bolsheviks, he did not have much use for them in Turkey—there being no snow to speak of. The Sultan asked Bob if he would accept them as a gift, if he was looking for a wife, he (the Sultan) would give him four of the finest girls in his harem. Bob did not look at the dogs, and then inspected the four beauties which were to be allotted to him. The dogs were the 1880 model, and were anything but streamlined, in fact they were built more like tanks. Bob said to himself, it was a matter of wild animals or wild women. Bob intimated that he would feel much safer with the animals, and the Sultan was greatly pleased to accept the four dogs.

These dogs were very fierce, but Bob had them tamed with the help of his eye. He claims that it is an easy matter to cure fierce animals by watching them and then bringing them straight in the eye. He stated that anybody could do this, but that it would be safer to practice to the house at first.

We understand that Bob is content with his catch, as he has got a much better price for his furs.

WINNERS IN LAST WEEK'S SNOOKER TOURNAMENT

The snooker tournament, which was held at the Seaman's Club last week, finished with Gus Kiratian winning the first prize, an electric clock, with George Packham a close second.

HIGH PRAIRIE VILLAGE NEWS

PUT ON SUCCESSFUL CONCERT

INTER. PRAIRIE, April 16.—The Hocken Band, under the direction of Ben Walker, had a very successful concert, followed by a dance, on Friday evening.

Features of the concert were: A one-act play, particularly acted by Mrs. F. Pottage, Mrs. J. C. Bennett, Mrs. G. E. McLean, and Mrs. G. E. McLean, a colored skit by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leaming, which kept the audience in fits of laughter, and a square dance, dancing by the Miners Harding, M. Beelteeters and V. Harding, and musical numbers by Miss K. Butler, Miss May and Miss A. B. Butler were the accompanists.

Farmers expect to start work on the land this week. The snow is all gone and the winds of the past two weeks have dried the land wonderfully.

BAD HEART

April 12.—Well, all the ice is gone now and the roads are drying up nicely.

Farmers here will soon be on the land to prepare another big harvest.

Mrs. S. K. Kline is at the Grande Prairie Municipal Hospital, where she underwent an operation. We hope she will soon recover and be home again.

Mrs. Kline is also the Munitions Hospital, another fine home boy.

Save and Hold

The disappointed look on Vic's face when he didn't get his hay threshed. Jim threshing around like a young colt, maybe he's been eating some of his hay.

That Bert doesn't mind the mud when it comes to visiting.

Doris is busy with the janitor work again.

GOODWIN

(Received by Friday's Mail)

GOODWIN, April 11.—Several residents of the village were out watching the river break up last Sunday, April 8. Mr. J. Newman and J. Ley claim to have started the ice movement at the old Bennett crossing. We wonder how.

"Stomach flu" seems to be the rage in this country, particularly in the North. Almost everyone has had a touch of it. We expect now that spring is here the epidemic will soon be over.

Mr. W. J. Newman, especially an eating green onions out of the garden already. J. Newman says this is the "stomach bug," but we think it is the "onion bell."

The trustees of the school board held a meeting at the home of Mr. A. McLean, April 10.

Mr. T. Crowe is again busy getting ready for summer at Bachman's Hall. Mr. K. Kline and Mr. T. Crowe were visiting at J. Newman's last week.

Now that the river has broken up, Frank can't say he goes down the river looking for squirrels anymore, as he has to go down the river about one-half mile. Judging from his tracks he goes past Tom's, but where?

UNITED CHURCH OF ALBRIGHT

Mr. A. H. Stevens

second, he taking home a purse, which is a handy thing to have, providing you have a place to go.

The billiard tournament, which started after the finish of the snooker contest, has not yet been decided. As far as we can see, it can't be decided, as we are not interested, having been shown out of it in the first round.

ANOTHER BIG DAY FOR SEXSMITH

Next Saturday promises to be another big day in Sexsmith, it being stock day, also J. Fitzgerald, a local sportsman, who has been a good boy, is to be here to give away a car, and this is saying considerably as Bob is one of the oldest and most experienced trappers in the country. His catch has been known to bring in catches second to none.

Bob had with him his famous Siberian sled dogs, which formerly belonged to the late Czar of Russia. After the death of the Czar these dogs were sold to the Bolsheviks, and it is the key by the Bolsheviks, as a token of their ownership.

Mr. Walker reports a more optimistic outside.

Mac Naughton and Fred McNaughton expect to leave for Montreal via the stock train route Sunday, April 21.

UKRAINIAN PLAY WILL BE STAGED WEST OF SEXSMITH

A play will be staged at the Community Hall three miles west of Sexsmith on Wednesday evening, April 25. The play will be in English, and in the Ukrainian language. It is entitled "Whose Baby?" and is a screw drama.

The play is a local one and will probably be practicable for the past six weeks. Everybody attending is asked to bring a chair and a blanket.

There will be a dance after the show.

PEORIA NEWS

PEORIA, April 16.—Spring is here and the weather is getting warmer. The people feel well, though we are not making much fine blue.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Martin is very ill. Roy. Reliving also has been kept in the hospital for a few days.

Newspaper, the bride being a niece of the bride, is to be married at the church on Saturday.

Mr. Kewley is assisting Mr. Elliott in his new building. He is also picking up a lesson here and there in the hardware business.

Mr. Frank is around again. After his winter convalescence, he is again able to see his friends for spring walks.

Right now we have more than the usual supply of water, but it is draining off the land rapidly and plowing the fields for the very pleasant evening.

Though Mr. J. R. McQuarrie apparently is back to port and old fashioned ways, he is a member of the jamboree and the acquisition of a charming bride. However, he has a smile on his face that won't come off.

Russell Atherly, who has been in the employ of Elliott for some time, is now back with the Community Club.

There are all kinds of shingle and sawdust around here, and yet Mr. J. Taylor, it is said, plans on putting up a house in a nail factory?

We were all glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Paulus back again. His sister was also along with them, but had to leave it somewhere along Slave River.

Some youngsters were down to the Smoky River to see what the birds are like this year.

Believe it or not

Harold is quite proud of his car and is keeping it in good order.

That the wheat threshed last week went well.

Del is fixing up the tractor so it will be in good shape for field work.

That Frank and Harry thin life in Peoria.

Some big quahogs and a number of culverts were washed out recently.

Now Roy is on his honeymoon with his wife, and we hope to see them again.

Quite a few young people want to go outside after seed is down.

It is expected that a week or two from now everyone will be busy in the fields and tractors will be humming from early until late.

Some youngsters were down to the Smoky River to see what the birds are like this year.

That Bert doesn't mind the mud when it comes to visiting.

Doris is busy with the janitor work again.

CORRECTION

RYE ERATIC PRODUCTION

With a somewhat improved export demand, particularly acted by Mrs. F. Pottage, Mrs. J. C. Bennett, Mrs. G. E. McLean, and Mrs. G. E. McLean, a colored skit by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leaming, which kept the audience in fits of laughter, and a square dance, dancing by the Miners Harding, M. Beelteeters and V. Harding, and musical numbers by Miss K. Butler, Miss May and Miss A. B. Butler were the accompanists.

CHANGE IN BANK STAFF

Mr. Carl Schreiber, who has been cashier in the bank for the past year, has been transferred to Edmonton.

Mr. K. Kline is at the Grande Prairie Municipal Hospital, where she underwent an operation. We hope she will soon recover and be home again.

Mrs. Kline is also the Munitions Hospital, another fine home boy.

DR. MACRAE'S CAR BURNED

Our town was put into a strict "Tuesdays" when the first alarm sounded.

McRae's car was on the road home when he struck a stump and put his car out of commission.

When on the main street in town, the car burst into flames and the fire department had to put out the fire.

He was unable to get his car out of the fire. The body was badly damaged.

The body was completely destroyed.

•

THE NORTHERN TRIBUNE

Editor of Northern Tribune.

Grand Prairie.

Dear Sirs: In behalf of the United Church I have a correction to make.

On the 10th paper of April 6, in the Northern News, it was stated that a show and dance was put on by the United Church of Christ of Albright.

The United Church had nothing to do with it and would a correction made to that effect?

DISTRICT AGRICULTURIST HERE

Mr. W. J. Thompson, district agriculturist, was in Hythe during the week.

He made a tour of the district of Albright.

The United Church had nothing to do with it and would a correction made to that effect?

UNITED CHURCH OF ALBRIGHT

Mr. W. J. Thompson, Mr. A. H. Stevens

APPLETON NEWS

APPLETON, April 17.—Mr. Eric O'Brien of Grind Prairie is spending a week with his brother, Herb, who is now living in the city, having been born from Edmonton, where she was on an extended visit to her aunt, Mrs. Brown.

Miss Nora Moriwaki, a young daughter of the district on Thursday last, when she had a miscellaneous shower.

Mr. and Mrs. John Peever, Vancouver.

They are grandson and granddaughter, respectively.

When the bride-elect received many beautiful and useful presents, she was pleased.

After the shower was spent by all the hosts served a very dainty lunch during the afternoon.

Hythe's Weekly News Basket

"When is the Peace River to get the Coast Outlet? We've waited twenty years. We need it NOW!"

Cyril Morris has been visiting his father the past week.

Mr. Cody, who was waitress in the Star Cafe, has gone to Edmonton.

Paul Novick is back on the hotel staff. He comes from Denver.

Mr. J. E. Stewart, representing the Canadian Oil Refining Company, is here on business.

Mr. Ted Mint has been installed in the B. P. O. E. The Elks here are a very live bunch.

Bert Bessant of the National Fruit is making his regular rounds in this district.

Mr. Bradly, blackman for Massay-Harris, is here rounding up business.

Mr. Frank is assisting Mr. Elliott in his new building. He is also picking up a lesson here and there in the hardware business.

Mr. Kewley is assisting Mr. Elliott in his new building. He is also picking up a lesson here and there in the hardware business.

Mr. Frank is around again. After his winter convalescence, he is again able to see his friends for spring walks.

Right now we have more than the usual supply of water, but it is draining off the land rapidly and plowing the fields for the very pleasant evening.

Though Mr. J. R. McQuarrie apparently is back to port and old fashioned ways, he is a member of the jamboree and the acquisition of a charming bride. However, he has a smile on his face that won't come off.

Russell Atherly, who has been in the employ of Elliott for some time, is now back with the Community Club.

There are all kinds of shingle and sawdust around here, and yet Mr. J. Taylor, it is said, plans on putting up a house in a nail factory?

We were all glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Paulus back again. His sister was also along with them, but had to leave it somewhere along Slave River.

Some youngsters were down to the Smoky River to see what the birds are like this year.

Believe it or not

Harold is quite proud of his car and is keeping it in good order.

That the wheat threshed last week went well.

Del is fixing up the tractor so it will be in good shape for field work.

That Frank and Harry thin life in Peoria.

Some big quahogs and a number of culverts were washed out recently.

Now Roy is on his honeymoon with his wife, and we hope to see them again.

Quite a few young people want to go outside after seed is down.

It is expected that a week or two from now everyone will be busy in the fields and tractors will be humming from early until late.

Some youngsters were down to the Smoky River to see what the birds are like this year.

That Bert doesn't mind the mud when it comes to visiting.

Doris is busy with the janitor work again.

CORRECTION

RYE ERATIC PRODUCTION

With a somewhat improved export demand, particularly acted by Mrs. F. Pottage, Mrs. J. C. Bennett, Mrs. G. E. McLean, and Mrs. G. E. McLean, a colored skit by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leaming, which kept the audience in fits of laughter, and a square dance, dancing by the Miners Harding, M. Beelteeters and V. Harding, and musical numbers by Miss K. Butler, Miss May and Miss A. B. Butler were the accompanists.

CHANGE IN BANK STAFF

Mr. Carl Schreiber, who has been cashier in the bank for the past year, has been transferred to Edmonton.

Mr. K. Kline is at the Grande Prairie Municipal Hospital, where she underwent an operation. We hope she will soon recover and be home again.

Mrs. Kline is also the Munitions Hospital, another fine home boy.

DR. MACRAE'S CAR BURNED

Our town was put into a strict "Tuesdays" when the first alarm sounded.

McRae's car was on the road home when he struck a stump and put his car out of commission.

When on the main street in town, the car burst into flames and the fire department had to put out the fire.

He was unable to get his car out of the fire. The body was badly damaged.

The body was completely destroyed.

•

THE NORTHERN TRIBUNE

Editor of Northern Tribune.

Grand Prairie.

Dear Sirs: In behalf of the United Church I have a correction to make.

On the 10th paper of April 6, in the Northern News, it was stated that a show and dance was put on by the United Church of Christ of Albright.

The United Church had nothing to do with it and would a correction made to that effect?

DISTRICT AGRICULTURIST HERE

Mr. W. J. Thompson, district agriculturist.

He made a tour of the district of Albright.

At the April 10 meeting of the Albright United Church, Mr. Thompson had nothing to do with it and would a correction made to that effect?

UNITED CHURCH OF ALBRIGHT

Mr. W. J. Thompson, Mr. A. H. Stevens

THE NORTHERN TRIBUNE

FORTUNE AWAITED DISPOSITION

FORT WILLIAM.—A fortune, reported to amount to millions of dollars awarded to him while he was in the service of Canada looked for developments.

The fortune consisted of the estate of Mr. Fred Frost, of Fort William.

Claims to the fortune include Mr. Fred Frost, of Fort William, and Mr. John Peever, Vancouver.

They are grandson and granddaughter, respectively.

When the estate was settled it was understood to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

After the settlement of the estate, it was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was not known where the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

It was known that the will was to be in the hands of Madeline Tyrell.

New Immigration Is The Remedy for Our Depression

A series of Articles by Brig.-Gen. M. L. Hornby, Lethbridge, Alta.
(All Rights Reserved)

(Continued from last week)

VIII—OUR FARMERS AND NEW IMMIGRATION

Among our farmers there is, I know, a body of opinion which is not without doubt as to the wisdom of resuming immigration in the near future, being anxious about the question of markets for our surplus products. I am sure, about the apparent so-called "Over-production" in the primary products on the market, said to be due to "Over-production" in the sense of the price of market products in that condition. The same amount of production as is likely to result from increased land settlement; and about the same amount of production as the remunerative prices for the produce of new settlers. As a farmer myself, I am fully aware of the effect of the increase of our present farming population and of new settlers, on markets and prices of our products.

It seems to me, however, that we are in the present time to blame what is called our trouble, and that it is the result of assumption. Take the case of wheat.

The annual production of wheat in the world, in 1933, was 180,000,000 bu. The 1932 acreage for 49 countries was 47 per cent. greater and the production 47 per cent. greater.

It seems clear from the facts and figures given by the President of the London Corn Trade Association in a recent letter to the Times that under-consumption in Europe is one of the main causes of the so-called over-production, and, consequently, of its unemployment.

The same applies to other primary products also. Take, for instance, the case of wheat. The number of people in Europe today are not consuming anything like the amount of surplus wheat as we are. The general consumption of agricultural products is due to the very low shift to which the standard of living has been reduced by unemployment and low wages, which in turn are due to the general depression of enterprise and development of the world over, the result of financial stringency.

There are some who urge that it does not follow that the depression of the farmers who we present "glut" agricultural produce is due to over-production. That viewpoint is difficult to understand.

Before we can cure the present condition of "glut" we must ascertain the cause of the depression.

It is clear that the depression of people in Europe is the result of the financial stringency of the masses.

One of the major causes of depression is a renewal of the purchasing power of our wage-earners.

The movement of migration and over-settlement within the British Empire, which includes a renewal of land development through this Dominion, is a step in the right direction.

It is important however, just how soon an addition to production by new settlers would make itself felt. If a more extensive scheme of land settlement in Canada were to be put into operation this winter, at least six months would be required in order to get the new settlers to produce their crops for occupation. A first batch of new settlers might possibly go into occupation in the spring of 1935, but it is too late to put in a crop that year. Their first crop would be put in to the spring of 1936. It would be unreasonable to expect a great deal from the first crop. It would therefore be necessary to wait until 1936 that the effect of their increased production would begin to be felt—three years from now!

With these facts in mind, we are not to look forward three years and confidently expect a renewal of our former prosperity before that time has elapsed.

Farmers need not fear increased production by new settlers. It will not mean that we will be glutted in three years, and then it will be in live stock, rather than in wheat—if it is properly organized and controlled.

Moreover, the increased employment for manual workers, in preparing ready-made farm homes for the new settlers, in supplying new implements and equipment to operate them; and in providing numerous necessary supplies for the new settlers, will be a great boon to the agricultural products—meat, butter, milk, eggs, etc.—and will save prices, because of the increased demand for agricultural products which we will be fed. Moreover the local price of live stock will be maintained, and the foundation live stock for the new settlers. And purchases of land will tend to stabilize land values and increase the price of further advancement to farmers.

Again, why should we concern that the farmers of Canada will not be forced to emigrate to break away from the production and the sale of wheat? There being a glut of wheat, why should we turn the farmers of Canada more to live stock production. Our production of live stock for export is to a large extent controlled by the market. This being so, why should we not raise oats and barley, and feed them to live stock, instead of wheat? The market commands it on an overstocked market?

At present Canada cannot consume

50 per cent. of her own wheat, and it seems to me as a farmer myself, that farmers have everything to gain from a more fully populated and busier

Canada, with a better internal demand for their agricultural products.

To sum up:

New immigration, coupled with organized and fully financed land settlement, will create new employment, and therefore greater prices to wage earners, thereby creating purchasing power in the hands of the biggest class of consumers of meat, milk, butter, eggs, etc., which will help to raise the local price level of what the farmer produces, and will bring him a return and revenue in many ways in return and overseas settlement for his people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in improved live stock.

IX—ENGLAND'S GAIN AND CANADA'S

The position of locations for the proposed settlement of the nine Provinces of Canada, as at the present time, is to move the present trend towards the consumption of overseas immigration, and the settlement of the British Immigration and Land Settlement in Canada. In the first instance, the new settlers, 125,000 persons, and including an untried frontier, will be given a return and revenue in the foundation of live stock, at improved levels.

THE NORTHERN TRIBUNE

"Foreign" settlers, why should not overseas settlers have been established in the Western Provinces, with particular custom to British trade? Evidently the importance of migration as a factor in developing Empire has steadily increased, and is now recognized in the United Kingdom.

When discussing the question of new settlers to the Old Country, often settlers in the Old Country, often sufficient consideration is given to the fact that both the Federal and the Provincial governments of Canada are already making very important contributions to the settlement of every new immigrant into Canada in the areas, its schools, roads, railways, police, law courts, post offices, telegraphs, etc., etc. A great deal is often said on the subject of Canada making a "fitting" place for the new settlers, and the settlement of new immigrants from the United Kingdom in accordance with the terms of the 1922 Empire Settlement Act, but Canada is not fully organized, as being in the interests of Canada and her workers, and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in improved live stock.

We may safely advocate an early resumption of new immigration, coupled with the formation of a well organized and fully financed plan of land settlement as being in the interests of Canada and her workers, and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in improved live stock.

We may safely advocate an early reumption of new immigration, coupled with the formation of a well organized and fully financed plan of land settlement as being in the interests of Canada and her workers, and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in improved live stock.

We may safely advocate an early re-

umption of new immigration, coupled with the formation of a well organized and fully financed plan of land settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settlement for her people; by an increase in her trade with us; and after a short period of time, in return and overseas settle-

</div

ILLUSTRATED NEWS OF THE WEEK

A SPECIAL TRIBUNE FEATURE
THE BEST OF THE WEEK'S INTERESTING NEWS PICTURES

BRITISH WORKMEN PREPARE LARGEST WINE SHIPMENT FOR AMERICA

The biggest boom on record is now in full swing at the London Docks, the world's clearing house for wine, where hundreds of workmen are busy preparing the biggest single consignment of wine ever seen across the Atlantic. More than 24,000 bottles of port wine were ready for stowing in a ship sailing for the United States when this picture was taken. Note the workmen busily engaged in capping and labelling the bottles of port wine.

PLANS MINES CONTROL

A bill passed its second reading in the Saskatchewan legislature which will give the government control of all the coal mines in the province. Hon. J. F. Bryant (above), minister of mines and minerals, said the bill would be used to "minimize unfair competition by price-cutting."

Here and There

Princess Junbo, sister of the Emperor of Manchukuo, with her husband T. K. Cheng, were passengers aboard the Duchess of Richmond, a Canadian liner, which sailed from Vancouver on the liner Empress of Canada.

BRITAIN'S WAR DOGS MAKE FIGHTABLE PICTURE

This photograph from a newspaper shows British's first destroyers following H.M.S. Revenge in perfect formation. This was part of the naval exercises of the Mediterranean and Home Fleets at Gibraltar, one of the largest gatherings of British warships to take place for several years.

AS RESCUERS SAVE FIVE FROM BLAZING MINE

Jack Hayes, head of the rescue squad which effected the recovery of five miners trapped in the Sinker mine, near Linton, Ind., following an explosion and fire, is shown about to be lowered to the bottom of the shaft by a crane after the mine elevator, or cage, had been destroyed by fire.

SPECIAL RITES FOR WEDDING OF WESTERNIZED EMPEROR

The shy young lady on the left is Miss Yuen Hui-Han, daughter of a wealthy Cochin-Chinese family, who recently became the bride of Emperor Dao-Dai (right) of Annam. A special dispensation was obtained from the Vatican to permit Miss Yuen, a Roman Catholic, to marry the potentate.

POLITICAL SUICIDE

Disappointment over his failure to win reappointment as president of the national council of the party he founded is believed to have inspired the suicide of Colonel Roberto Mendes Penate, secretary of the Argentine Ministry of Agriculture. He had been a life-long friend of President Carlos Mendieta.

A Few Items of World Interest

ISTANBUL, April 12.—Simeon Ingvar, son of the Swedish ambassador to the United States, from Stockholm to Istanbul, was removed under guard from the Istanbul house of detention to be taken to the British Consulate, where he is to be held until his trial on board the S.S. Estonia, sailing Friday.

ROMA, April 12.—Argentina's big wheat crop, which has been over the World Wheat Conference today and was seen as the Conference seemed particularly sanguine. The Argentine is the only large exporting country not represented in the sub-committee now presiding over the Conference, a measure for a world minimum price for export wheat.

The delegate from Argentina stated that the country had not introduced any measure for halting wheat production. With a bigger crop than she expected at the time she signed the world minimum, Argentina wants an increase in her allowed export quota. Giving the Argentine a bigger share of the world market, the other countries will get a smaller world quota for the present crop year, expiring July 31, was fixed at 500,000,000 bushels, of which Argentina got 110,000,000 bushels.

TOKIO, April 11.—Japanese officials are anxious about the shipment of enormous quantities of coal to the port of Vladivostok, so Rengo, the Japanese news agency reports. Three Japanese steamers and two tank ships, each accompanied by a Soviet ship and chartered by the Soviet government, are reported to be leaving from Odessa, the Russian port on the Black Sea, for the port on the eastern extremity of the country. They are believed to be carrying 6,000 tons of munitions each.

MOSCOW, April 11.—Sixty-two men, marooned on an ice floe in the Bering Sea, were rescued by daring Russian sailors late last night and early this morning.

DUBLIN, April 10.—William Wallace McDowell, United States minister to the Irish Free State, collapsed at a formal banquet given in his honor Monday night and died within a few minutes.

BERLIN, April 10.—William Wallace McDowell, United States minister to the Irish Free State, collapsed at a formal banquet given in his honor Monday night and died within a few minutes.

It is not Easter traffic in years with main line trains running in extra sets and with added coaches and parcels trains cut fifteen per cent in wages; higher offices have been reduced 20% and the government's secretaries have had a 25% cut in their fees, while E. G. Bouchier, chairman of the Board of Trade, and President has still on his request taken a reduction of forty per cent.

Eight days only after they had witnessed the Great National carnival at Antwerp near Liverpool, a number of Torontonians reached their homes in time for the Easter Monday races. The achievement was made possible by the fast voyage of the Duchess of Richmond under her new commander, Captain Arthur well.

Announcement is made by the Canadian Pacific Railway that it will now accept shipments of freight via Port McNeill and its lake port, carried by Great Britain and the continent to Canada, the Metagamis of the Canadian Pacific is reported to be sold for scrap, her owners announced recently.

After years of railroad service, 52 of the Canadian Pacific's 55 locomotives, the Royal York Hotel by a unique arrangement to be used at Laramie, retired general freight agent at Toronto. E. W. Hobey, K.C., president; Charles E. Parsons, vice-president; Grant Hall, vice-president; and George Stephen, traffic vice-president, were among those who attended.

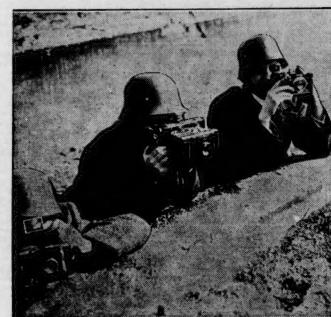

L. G. Prevost, K.C., assistant solicitor, Canadian Pacific Railway, has been appointed as the post-solicitor of the company for the province of Quebec, succeeds G. E. Ross, of Montreal. Parsons, K.C., the appointment being effective as from April 1.

Captain David Sinclair McQueen, commander of the Canadian Pacific liner, the Empress of Atholl, will retire on May 1, after 44 years spent on the route. He died in 1928 while in the employ of the old Allan Line and Canadian Pacific Steamships.

ROME, April 10.—The special committee of the World Wheat Conference charged with the task of drawing up a specific plan to raise the world export price of wheat was today putting the finishing touches to its draft report. It was indicated that at least tentative agreement had been reached on the scheme for fixing a minimum price for wheat. The Wheat Conference earlier had reached general agreement, although hitherto being unable to agree on how this was to be achieved.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The United States Senate agriculture committee today reported favorably the Dingle Silver Farm Relief Bill carrying the "finishing touches" to its draft report. The bill provides for acceptance of silver from countries which have a 10 to 20 per cent over the world price in exchange for American surplus crops.

LONDON, April 8.—Crop trade throughout the world at last point to higher grain prices. This is the clearing conclusion of the famous Economic Status Report, which Sir Walter Layton, economic adviser to the League of Nations, is the editor.

A NEW WAY TO SHOOT THE ENEMY

Waiting for the Big Explosion! German press photographers under cover and wearing steel helmets, all ready to photograph the bombing of the British gas works at the British gas factory in Berlin. Two hundred and fifty sticks of dynamite were required to carry out the work, which ended very spectacularly.

TWO FAMOUS "STARS" IN NEW FILM

Miss Anna May Wong, famous Chinese-American film star, and George Hobey, well-known English comedian, are pictured as they relax during the filming of "Clue Chin Chow" in England. Hobey played the part of Ali Baba, and Anna May Wong was Zohar, the slave girl.

STRIKING ELECTION PROPAGANDA IN ROME

—Barlow, in the New Clarion, London.

An enormous poster with the word "SI" (yes) repeated and a caricature of Mussolini covers the whole of one side of the Palazzo Braschi, the offices of the Fascist Federation Dell'Urbe, in Rome.

Gleanings of Interest To the Women Folks

By THE GLEANER

Mrs. F. Hickman entertained at two tables of bridge on Monday night.

Mrs. J. Charters entertained a few friends to afternoon tea on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Yule entertained a few friends on Tuesday night.

C. C. Dramatic Club met at the Speke Hall on Monday night to rehearse.

THREE-TABLE CLUB AT MRS. ROBERTS

The Three-Table Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. F. Roberts on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Peary won the honors and Mrs. Peary was the second.

SALE OF HOME-COOKING VERY SUCCESSFUL

Christ Church W. A. had a most successful sale of home-cooking at the Speke Hall on Saturday.

DANCE WAS VERY ENJOYABLE

After Lindsay district had put on their very successful one-act play, there was a most enjoyable dance in the Capitol Theatre on Friday night.

MOVE OUT TO FARM

Mr. and Mrs. L. Prentiss, who have been living in the Loney residence, have moved to their farm west of town on Saturday.

STUDY CLUB COMMITS MONEY TO CHARITABLE HOME

The study club met at the home of Mrs. J. Charters last Wednesday. Next Wednesday the meeting will be held at Mrs. Roy Fitzgerald's.

ENJOYABLE FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN BY A. Y. P. A.

The A. Y. P. A. gave a very enjoyable farewell party for Mr. R. P. Fitzgerald on Thursday night of last

BOOK TALK

By J. C. B.

A Thatched Roof, by Beverley Nichols. "How many people are there who could write about a house—yes, just a house—and make it a really delightful story?"

That is exactly what Beverley Nichols has done, and with such charm that we read every page eagerly and at length, finding the book a high, friendly sort of book that would like to own a charming Tudor cottage with thatched roof, and the country of Huntingdonshire.

"Down The Garden Path" was also a great success. "There is a Roof" is all about the cottage which stands in that garden. "It is not a sequel," says Beverley Nichols, "but the other half of the story is lovely."

There is charm, and the unfolding of beauty and a feeling of "homey" beauty, as well as a sense of mirth from room to room. There is a kind of the old kindliness of the old cottage. And this is too the old cottage. And in the finding of the "Thatched Roof."

Many people are there who could write about a house—yes, just a house—and make it a really delightful story?"

That is exactly what Beverley Nichols has done, and with such charm that we read every page eagerly and at length, finding the book a high, friendly sort of book that would like to own a charming Tudor cottage with thatched roof, and the country of Huntingdonshire.

"Down The Garden Path" was also a great success. "There is a Roof" is all about the cottage which stands in that garden. "It is not a sequel," says Beverley Nichols, "but the other half of the story is lovely."

There is charm, and the unfolding of beauty and a feeling of "homey" beauty, as well as a sense of mirth from room to room. There is a kind of the old kindliness of the old cottage. And this is too the old cottage. And in the finding of the "Thatched Roof."

A Thatched Roof, by Beverley Nichols. "How many people are there who could write about a house—yes, just a house—and make it a really delightful story?"

That is exactly what Beverley Nichols has done, and with such charm that we read every page eagerly and at length, finding the book a high, friendly sort of book that would like to own a charming Tudor cottage with thatched roof, and the country of Huntingdonshire.

"Down The Garden Path" was also a great success. "There is a Roof" is all about the cottage which stands in that garden. "It is not a sequel," says Beverley Nichols, "but the other half of the story is lovely."

There is charm, and the unfolding of beauty and a feeling of "homey" beauty, as well as a sense of mirth from room to room. There is a kind of the old kindliness of the old cottage. And this is too the old cottage. And in the finding of the "Thatched Roof."

THE NORTHERN TRIBUNE

POPULAR LAWYER GIVEN A FOND FAREWELL

A large crowd gathered at the station on Friday night to speed Mr. Fitzgerald on his way, with dancing and with cymbals—though there was no dancing. However, the cymbals did like to have a party, and when all right, also brass bells and even a mouth organ. The "band" read the right word—"For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and all the ladies present kissed him a fond farewell.

ACHIEVEMENTS

By E. W. Wilcox

In three thin overwrought comedy is as good as it gets in God Himself.

They say it is an emanation from the whole.

They don't dream what forces lie in the heart and unfeathomed as the grandest sea.

The silent mind o'er diamond caves may roll, but let them roll with those passions which thy favoring

No man shall place a limit in thy strength.

Some thoughts as no mortal man ever gained.

May yet be thine if thou will but in the center and thyself. At length

Some time will all hearts now unattainable.

Some time own? Press on.

Achieve! Achieve!

Press on.

